

CONFIDENTIAL

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 8 May 1967

25X1 1. [ ] Left with George Murphy, on the Staff of Joint Committee on Atomic energy, [ ] I informed him that we had no information on [ ] about whom he had also inquired. 25X1 25X1

25X1 2. [ ] In response to his request, I met with Bernard Fensterwald, Jr., Chief Counsel of the Senate Subcommittee of Administrative Practice and Procedure, and briefed him on the Agency 25X1 involvement in [ ] has written a letter to Senator Edward Long, Chairman of the Subcommittee, alleging certain acts of wiretapping of his home, hotel, and other telephones. His letter also says that his case involves CIA and he repeats his allegations that he was working on behalf of the United States Government. Following my briefing Fensterwald said he was perfectly satisfied with the information I had given him concerning the Agency in this case. However, he was interested in "needling" Customs on the subject of the wiretapping. In my presence he dictated a letter to Secretary of the Treasury Fowler asking for information 25X1 concerning [ ] allegations. Fensterwald's letter includes a statement that the Agency has informed the Subcommittee that it was not involved in any wiretapping in this case and that the Agency would not be embarrassed by the Subcommittee's investigation of [ ] allegations. Immediately after my meeting with Fensterwald I checked with Mr. Houston to be certain that there was no objection to the sentence concerning the Agency. 25X1

25X1 3. [ ] In the absence of Boyd Crawford, Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, who was out due to illness, I returned the transcript of the testimony of [ ] to Miss June Nigh. 25X1

25X1 4. [ ] Delivered to Mr. Treswell Hane, Assistant to Chairman Mendel Rivers, a draft response to constituent correspondence relating to Agency support of private organizations and congressional supervision of the Centran Intelligence Agency. Mr. Hane was most appreciative of the Agency's assistance.